Scott Wilkins has been jamming since 1974, first on bass, then mandolin and guitar. He has performed throughout the U.S. and currently plays with numerous bands in South Jersey including The Blind Squirrels and Let's Ride Bikes. He has been teaching music for decades. His natural tendency is to encourage everyone to play an instrument, and his passion is to help beginners learn the art of jamming.

SCOTT'S STUDENTS SAY:

"Scott makes it fun to learn."

"Got me jamming in no time—
best teacher ever!"

"I couldn't believe I was jamming right away—and I love it!"

"Patient and fun, easy learning."

Pete Wernick ("Dr. Banjo", originator of Banjo Camps and Bluegrass Jam Camps)

has created a method that has taught thousands nationwide how to enjoy bluegrass jams at their own level.

Wernick Method teachers are certified by Pete based on knowledge of bluegrass, teaching ability, and proper use of the Wernick Method.

DO YOU QUALIFY? It's easier than you may think! If you play guitar, mandolin, banjo, fiddle, bass, or dobro... you can be part of a bluegrass jam.

Only requirements: You must be able to tune your instrument (electronic tuning devices welcome) and change smoothly between G, C, D, and A. (Fiddles and basses need to know which notes work with which chords) Fast playing is not expected, nor is the ability to solo required.
